(Last name and first name of supervisor)

Discipline of the doctorate: .....

A doctoral thesis is to be written with the title or working title of:

.....
.....
.....

The doctoral student undertakes to give the supervisor a written or verbal progress report at their request at least once a year.

The supervisor undertakes to acknowledge these reports, to give the doctoral student feedback on request in a one-to-one meeting or during doctoral seminars and to be available for consultation.

In the event of serious disagreements in the supervisory relationship between the doctoral student and the supervisor, the University of Bonn shall make mediation services available:

- If conflicts of this kind relate to the supervisory situation, the Ombudsperson Office for Early-Career Researchers shall be responsible.
- If accusations of scientific misconduct have been made, the Research Integrity Ombudsperson shall be the first port of call.
- The Dean of the Faculty of Law and Economics is responsible in the event of disagreements relating to employment law.

The doctoral student's attention is hereby drawn to the fact that he/she must follow the rules of good research practice as stipulated in the Regulations for Safeguarding Good Research Practice at the University of Bonn when writing their doctoral thesis.

The doctoral student should make use of the services offered by the Graduate School if required in order to obtain support with writing their doctoral thesis and as part of their doctoral studies in accordance with § 5 of the Doctoral Degree Regulations.

☐ I hereby consent to the Graduate School of the Department of Law providing me with information on its events and services to the following email address:
